

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Anti-Terror Financing Policy

This policy is applicable to BoDs, as well as any employee or other person or company that works for or on behalf of Seatrans Group. In the policy referred to as "Seatrans" or "the Company".

We will:

- Seatrans is committed to combat money laundering. We will actively work to ensure our activities are not connected with criminals engaged in money transactions performed to cover funds sourced from criminal activity.
- Seatrans is committed to report concerns of such activity to appropriate authorities. To combat money laundering Seatrans is committed to perform due diligence prior to entering Material business agreements.